Neal Adams - Captain

Neal is a New Zealander with over 20 years international experience in the charter and luxury yachting industry. In addition to the South Pacific where he is based, Neal's charter experience includes the Caribbean, Mediterranean, Indian Ocean, Pacific Region and Northeast Coast of the United States.

Neal is passionate about chartering and is also a qualified Royal Yachting Association [RYA] Sail Cruising Instructor. Neal holds a New Zealand Offshore Master (500 ton unlimited area) and RYA - Yacht Master Ocean.

Joseph Samuela - Chief Engineer

Joseph originates from Rotuma, a Polynesian island approximately 300 miles NNE of Fiji. After serving his engineer cadetship on government boats in Fiji, Joseph progressed to larger commercial vessels traversing the oceans of the world.

For the past 7 years, Joseph has enjoyed life on board charter boats not only as engineer but also as our water sports activities guru. Joseph contributes his vocals to the delightful Bel'Mare band and also plays the guitar. His happy disposition and positive attitude have made him very popular with all of our charter guests.

Manasa Heritage - Chef

Manasa has well over three decades of experience working as a chef on commercial vessels including several years on an Oceanic Research Vessel. Manasa has an extensive repertoire of cuisines and recipes acquired over his lengthy career working with diverse nationalities in various 'ports of call'. Not only is Manasa happy to share his tales of the 'high seas', he is also willing to share his exquisite recipes!

Mosese Dela - Steward / Deckhand

Mosese comes from a very remote island in the Lau Group about 240 miles east of Viti Levu. He is the Son of the island's chief making him Bel'Mare's chosen ambassador when it comes to village etiquette and the obligatory formal ceremonies conducted during island-visits. Prior to Mosese's 8 years of charter vessel experience, he was a highly regarded band member in Fiji singing and playing in some well known establishments. You will be enchanted by Mosese's beautiful voice along with the other talented members of the Bel'Mare band as they perform music that forever encapsulates the islands and essence of Fiji.
